
dark dots are significant canges + state change (neg fold change + pos before) pale dots are significant change but in the same direction as before (neg became more neg)